- A) General Terms and Conditions ("GTC")
- B) Data Privacy Policy

A) General Terms and Conditions (GTC)

These general terms and conditions ("GTC") shall apply for the legal relationship established by the order, purchase and/or use of VIP tickets ("Entrance Tickets") of Aachener Reitturnier GmbH ("ART") for events hosted and organised together with the Aachen-Laurensberger Rennverein e.V. ("ALRV") and for the stay of the respective holder of the Entrance Ticket at the show ground in and around the Albert-Servais-Allee 50, 52070 Aachen ("Show Ground"), Germany. The Show Ground Regulations (available at www.chiaoachen.com) shall form part of these GTC. Regardless as to whether the Customer is in possession of an original paper ticket or a print@home ticket or a mobile ticket, with purchasing or using the Entrance Tickets, the respective purchaser or holder of the Entrance Ticket ("Customer") accepts the validity of these GTC. In addition, unless otherwise stipulated under these GTC, the Ticket GTC of the ALRV (available at www.chiaoachen.de) shall apply. In case of contradictions, these GTC shall prevail.

§ 1 - Ticket Orders / Scope of Services

Entrance Tickets within the scope of these GTC can be ordered via the channels communicated by ART. Upon request, ART will provide the Customer with an offer overview. This offer overview shall be solely deemed to be an invitation for the Customer to submit the offer; the submission of the Customer's offer via the permissible transmission channels shall constitute a binding offer for the purchase of the Entrance Tickets. A binding contract between the Customer and ART based on these GTC shall only be concluded upon handover or shipping of the Entrance Tickets by ART.

§ 2 - Admission to the Show Ground

Admission to the Show Ground shall only be granted on presentation of a valid Entrance Ticket. As issuer of the Entrance Tickets, ART does not intend to grant access to every holder of an Entrance Ticket but, by way of a "Legitimationspapier" according to para. 808 BGB (German Civil Code) rather to those who have purchased Entrance Tickets as Customers from ART or within the scope of an admissible transfer in accordance with § 5 and fulfilling any further applicable admission requirements (e.g. according to § 7). The Entrance Ticket shall lose its validity at the time of the Customer leaving the Show Ground.

§ 3 - No right of withdrawal / return of Entrance Tickets

(1) Even if ART offers Entrance Tickets via means of distance communication in the sense of § 312c (2) of the German Civil Code and thus a distance contract may exist according to § 312c (1) of the German Civil Code, there is no two-week right of withdrawal and return for the Customer according to § 312g (2) no. 9 of the German Civil Code. Therefore, each submission of an offer or order for Entrance Tickets shall be binding immediately after confirmation by ART and shall oblige acceptance and payment.

(2) Entrance Tickets may be returned for a fee or exchanged as a gesture of goodwill on ART's part; the Customer shall not be granted a corresponding claim. In case a Customer is unable to use his or her Entrance Ticket for personal reasons (e.g. illness), it may exceptionally be passed on to a third party within the framework of the regulations set out under § 5.

§ 4 - Inadmissible transfer of Entrance Tickets

(1) For the purpose of preventing the unauthorised transfer of Entrance Tickets, in particular to avoid any speculation, and to maintain an established and appropriate pricing structure, it is a matter of legitimate interest for ART as well as the spectators to appropriately restrict the transfer of Entrance Tickets.

(2) Any business-related or commercial offering or resale of Entrance Tickets by Customers shall be prohibited. The business-related and commercial ticket offering and sale shall exclusively be reserved for ART. The Customer shall in particular be prohibited:

- a) from publicly offering Entrance Tickets for sale and/or in particular selling at auctions or on the internet, (e.g. on eBay, eBay-Kleinanzeigen, Facebook) and/or on platforms which have not been authorized by ART (e.g. viagogo, seatwave, StubHub, etc.); or
- b) from transferring Entrance Tickets at a price higher than the price paid (face-value); an additional charge of up to 10% for the compensation of transaction costs incurred shall be permitted; or
- c) from transferring Entrance Tickets regularly and/or in a greater quantity; or
- d) from selling or transferring tickets to commercial or business resellers and/or ticket merchants; or
- e) from commercially or business-related using Entrance Tickets or allowing their use without the prior express written consent of ART, in particular, for the purpose of advertising or marketing, as bonus, promotional gift, prize, or part of an unauthorized hospitality or travel package.

§ 5 - Admissible transfer of Entrance Tickets

(1) The Customer may use his or her Entrance Tickets to bring along guests, business partners, friends and family and pass them on solely for this purpose if the Customer (1) expressly informs his guests, business partners, friends and family of the validity and content of these GTC and the required processing of information (e.g. first and last name on request) to ART about the new Entrance Ticket holder in accordance with this clause, (2) the new Entrance Ticket holder agrees to the validity of these GTC between him or her and ART by purchasing and using the Entrance Tickets.

(2) The data processing of the data of the new Entrance Tickets holder (regularly name, address and date of birth) is carried out, on the one hand, for the fulfilment of the contracts between him or her and ART and between him or her and the Customer pursuant to Art. 6 (1) S. 1 (b) GDPR. On the other hand, this data processing is carried out to safeguard the legitimate interests of ART (cf. § 5 (1)) pursuant to Art. 6 (1) S. 1 (f) GDPR.

§ 6 - Measures in case of inadmissible transfers

In case of one or more violations of the regulations set out under § 4 (1) and/or other inadmissible transfer of Entrance Tickets, ART shall be granted the right:

- a) to not deliver Entrance Tickets to the respective Customer if Entrance Tickets were used contrary to the regulations set out under § 4 prior to transfer or shipping;
- b) to block the respective Entrance Tickets and to deny the Entrance Ticket holder access to the Show Ground without compensation or to expel said Entrance Ticket holder from the Show Ground;
- c) to exclude respective Customers from the future purchase of Entrance Tickets for an appropriate period of time but no more than a maximum of five (5) years; decisive for the duration of the ban shall be the number of violations, the number of Entrance Tickets offered, sold, transferred, or used as well as possible revenues from the resale;
- d) to impose a contractual penalty on the Customer in accordance with § 9.

§ 7 - Specific access conditions

For good cause, e.g. due to protection and hygiene measures set out by an association, the authorities or by law, or in the scope of a (partial) exclusion of spectators, ART shall be entitled (and, if applicable, obliged), in accordance with the applicable data protection law, to stipulate specific access conditions and to enforce respective compliance. In particular, ART shall be entitled

- a) to make the purchase of Entrance Tickets and/or admission to the Show Ground subject to certain requirements or proof (e.g. proof of health or vaccination status; masks) and to demand these proofs to be presented by the Entrance Ticket holder upon admission to or on the Show Ground. In case the Entrance Ticket holder does not comply with the applicable requirements, ART shall be entitled to refuse the purchase of the Entrance Ticket or admission to the Show Ground or expel the Customer or Entrance Ticket holder from the Show Ground;
- b) to set up specific admission time windows for certain Entrance Ticket holders. In such case, the latter shall be obliged to comply with such time windows. In case of intentional or negligent non-compliance, the Entrance Ticket holder may be denied access to the Show Ground without compensation.
- c) to make access to and stay on the Show Ground subject to additional rules, regulations and requirements (e.g. provision of further personal data). The applicable rules, regulations and requirements will be made available to the Customers in due time and shall be observed by all Entrance Ticket holders. Appropriate instructions from ART, the police and/or security personnel must be followed.

In case the specific access conditions have already been announced at the time of Entrance Ticket purchase, there shall be no revocation right or, at the latest, the revocation right shall expire with each admission to the Show Ground within the scope of the specific access conditions.

§ 8 - Responsibility and infection-risks

Every Entrance Ticket holder shall be obliged to inform himself or herself in due time before each event about possible postponements, spectator exclusions and applicable protection and hygiene regulations. In this regard, latest information is available at www.chioaachen.de. Each Entrance Ticket holder acknowledges that he or she may become infected with (viral) diseases in the course of attending an event. By attending an event, the Customer shall be deemed to have consciously accepted this risk.

§ 9 - Contractual penalty

In case of a culpable violation of these GTC by the Customer, in particular of one or more regulations in § 4, ART, in addition to the other possible measures according to these GTC and/or further recourse or legal compensation, in particular pursuant to tort law, shall have the right to impose on the Customer an appropriate contractual penalty in the amount of up to 2.500,- EUR. Decisive for the amount of the contractual penalty shall be in particular the number and the intensity of the violations, type and degree of culpability (intent or negligence), attempts and successes of the Customer with regard to redress, the question whether and to what extent said person is a repeat offender, and, in case of an unauthorized resale of Entrance Tickets, the quantity of Entrance Tickets offered, sold, transferred, or used as well as possible proceeds or profits generated from the resale.

§ 10 - Postponement / cancellation of the event / exclusion of spectators

(1) ART shall be entitled to cancel or postpone or, if necessary, abandon the respective event in the case of unforeseeable circumstances preventing the event from taking place (impossibility).

(2) In case of rescheduling or change of location of an event, the respective Entrance Tickets shall remain valid. In this case, the Customer may revoke the contract. Revocation shall be declared in writing (email sufficient) to ART. Upon presentation or mailing of the respective Entrance Ticket, the Customers concerned shall receive the ticket price paid; fees already incurred in the interest of the Customer (e.g. shipping and handover fees) shall not be refunded.

(3) In case of an abandonment of the event, the Customer shall not be entitled to a refund of the ticket price paid, unless ART is responsible for the abandonment of the event; fees already incurred in the interest of the Customer (e.g. shipping and handling fees) shall not be refunded in any case.

(4) In case of a cancellation of the event or, in accordance with a competent association or authority, an event taking place wholly or partly without spectators, the Customers concerned shall receive the ticket price paid upon presentation or mailing of the respective Entrance Ticket; fees already incurred in the interest of the Customer (e.g. shipping and handling fees) shall not be refunded.

(5) In these cases, ART shall not be liable to the Customer for futile expenses (e.g. futile travel and accommodation costs).

§ 11 - Animals are not permitted

Subject to seeing-eye dogs according to para. 33 (1) S. 1 of the German Social Code V as well as comparable dogs of assistance, animals shall not be permitted on the Show Ground.

§ 12 - Recordings of the event

Sound, photo, film and video recordings of any kind in the "Champions' Circle" shall be prohibited. In addition, it shall be prohibited to produce, copy, broadcast or otherwise use or distribute any audio, photo, film or video recordings or other descriptions of the event for commercial use without the permission of ART. The same shall apply with regard to assisting any other person in conducting such activities.

§ 13 - Recordings of the Entrance Ticket holder

For the purposes of public reporting and advertising of the respective event, ART and the competent association or third parties commissioned or otherwise authorised by them in each case (e.g. radio, press) may independently create image and sound recordings that may show the Entrance Ticket holder as a spectator in accordance with Art. 6 (1) S. 1 (f) GDPR and use them for these purposes. The legitimate interest of ART or third parties commissioned or otherwise authorised by the ART in each case (e.g. radio, press) is to position and exploit the event in the media. Further information can be found in ART's current data privacy policy, available at www.chioaachen.de. In case of a Customer acquiring Entrance Tickets not only for himself but also for other Entrance Ticket holders with an effective right to visit as set out under § 2, the Customer shall be obliged to ensure that the respective information is forwarded to the relevant Entrance Ticket holder.

§ 14 - Liability

(1) Admission to the Show Ground shall be at own risk. ART shall not be liable for any damages, to the extent ART, its authorised agents or representatives can only be charged with simple negligence, unless the breach consists of a fundamental breach of contract on behalf of ART (cardinal obligation). In the latter case, ART shall be liable for any foreseeable and typically ensuing damage. ART shall be fully liable for damages in the event of loss of life, personal injury or injury to health caused purposefully or negligently.

(2) ART shall not be responsible for lost or stolen items.

(3) Accidents or damage must be reported to ART immediately.

§ 15 - German version

If these GTC are available in several languages, the German version shall prevail. These GTC shall be governed by German law. In case the contractual party is a merchant within the meaning of the HGB (German Commercial Code), a legal entity governed by public law or has no common place of jurisdiction in Germany, the exclusive place of jurisdiction for any and all disputes in connection with the contract shall be Aachen, Germany.

§ 16 - Equality

To the extent the masculine form is used in these GTC, the designation shall apply to female and diverse persons accordingly.

§ 17 - Validity of the clauses

Should individual clauses of these GTC be or become invalid, the validity of the remaining clauses shall not be affected thereby. Should an individual clause be partially invalid the remaining part of the respective clause shall, to the extent that the invalid part can be withdrawn without loss of the intent of the other part, not be affected thereby.

§ 18 - Changes

In case of changes with regard to the legislation or jurisdiction, ART shall be entitled to amend these GTC with a notice period of four (4) weeks, or for good cause two (2) weeks, in advance, to the extent reasonable regarding the Customer. The respective changes shall be notified to the Customer under the contact details provided to ART. The changes shall be deemed to have been approved in case the Customer has not objected to the changes in writing, by e-mail or via the medium set up by ART for this purpose within the respective period after receipt, provided that ART has expressly pointed out this fiction of approval.

Purchase of tickets and contact tracing – To the extent that ART is obliged to do so by law or on the basis of protective or hygiene measures prescribed by the authorities or associations, ART will inform the competent authority in the event of suspected infection or proven infection of the ticket holder or a contact person of the ticketholder with a virus associated with a force majeure event in order to comply with its obligations in this regard with regard to tracing and containing possible sources of infection. The collection and subsequent transfer of data is based on Art. 6 (1) S. (c) GDPR, Art. 9 (2) (i) GDPR. If personal data are requested by the competent authority, the latter is responsible for the further processing of the data.

All aforementioned personal data will be deleted when it is no longer required for the purposes for which it was collected. Websites/Internet presence - If personal data (i.e. names, addresses, or email addresses) is collected on our site, this only occurs where possible on a voluntary basis. This data will only be passed on to third parties without your explicit consent in the following cases: (i) if an explicit consent has been granted in accordance with Art. 6 (1) S. 1 (a) GDPR, (ii) if the transfer in accordance with Art. 6 (1) S. 1 (f) GDPR is necessary for the assertion, exercise or defence of legal claims (e.g. ticket enforcement) and there is no reason for the assumption that there is an overriding legitimate interest in the nontransfer of the respective data, (iii) if the transfer in accordance with Art. 6 (1) S. 1 (c) GDPR, (iv) if this is legally admissible and required pursuant to Art. 6 (1) S. 1 (b) GDPR for the execution of contractual obligations with the Customer, or (v) if the transfer is conducted to a carefully selected service provider (Art. 28 (1) GDPR) with whom a contract for order processing (Art. 28 (3) GDPR) has been concluded (e.g. for the shipping of entrance tickets). We would like to point out that data transmission via the Internet (i.e. when communicating per email) is subject to security breaches. It is not possible to guarantee complete protection against the data being accessed by third parties.

Cookies - The websites partly use so-called cookies. Cookies do not cause any damage to your computer and they contain no viruses. Cookies serve to make our contents more user-friendly, more effective and safer. Cookies are small text files that are stored on your computer, which your browser saves. Most of the cookies we use are so-called "session cookies". These are automatically deleted after the end of your visit. Other cookies remain stored on your end device until you delete them. These cookies enable us to recognise your browser the next time you visit our site. In some cases, cookies from third-party companies may also be stored on your end device when you enter our site (third-party cookies). These enable us or you to use certain services of the third-party company (e.g. cookies for range measurement or integration of third-party content).

Cookies have various functions. Some cookies are technically necessary, as certain website functions would not work without them (e.g. language settings and cookie consent). Other cookies are used to evaluate user behaviour or display advertising (performance cookies). Technically necessary cookies are stored on the basis of Art. 6 (1) S. 1 (f) GDPR, unless another legal basis is specified. The website operator has a legitimate interest in storing cookies for the technically error-free and optimised provision of its services.

We use the "Borlabs cookie" as a so-called consent tool to request consent for data processing or the use of cookies or comparable functions. With the help of the consent tool, you have the possibility to give or refuse your consent for certain functionalities of our website, e.g. for the purpose of integrating external elements, integrating streaming content, statistical analysis, range measurement and personalised advertising. You can use the consent tool to give or refuse your consent for all functions or to give your consent for individual purposes or individual functions. The settings you have made can also be changed by you afterwards or the consents can be completely revoked. The purpose of integrating the consent tool is to allow users of our website to decide on the aforementioned matters and, in the course of further use of our website, to offer them the opportunity to change settings they have already made. In the course of using the consent tool, we regularly process the following personal data: Your consent(s) or revocation of your consent(s), your IP address, information about your browser, information about your terminal device, time of your visit to the website.

The legal basis for the use of the Consent Tool is Art. 6 (1) S. 1 (c) GDPR, as this obtains the legally required consents for the use of certain technologies.

The parent company of Google Ireland, Google LLC, is based in California, USA. A transfer of data to the USA and access by US authorities to the data stored by Google cannot be ruled out. The USA is currently considered a third country from a data protection perspective. You do not have the same rights there as within the EU/EEA. You may not have any legal remedies against access by authorities.

The data sent by us and linked to cookies are automatically deleted after 30 days. Data whose retention period has been reached is automatically deleted once a month.

The legal basis for this data processing is your consent pursuant to Art. 6 (1) S. 1 (a) GDPR. You can withdraw your consent at any time with effect for the future by calling up the settings HERE and changing your selection there. The lawfulness of the processing carried out on the basis of the consent until withdrawal remains unaffected.

Data privacy policy for the use of Google Maps - On our orientation page to the "CHIO Aachen Village", we use services of Google LLC, 1600 Amphitheatre Parkway Mountain View, CA 94043, USA ("Google"), in order to facilitate your orientation in the "CHIO Aachen Village". Google has its place of business partly outside the EU or the EEA - an adequate level of data protection according to the GDPR may therefore not exist. In order to ensure data protection on our website, we only use Google Maps together with the so-called "two-click" solution. This application prevents the use of Google Maps integrated on our website from transmitting data to Google when you first enter the page. Only when you activate Google Maps by clicking on the associated button ("Discover the CHIO Aachen Village"), a direct connection to the provider's server will be established (consent). As soon as you activate the plugin, Google receives the information that you have visited our site with your IP address. At the same time, Google may place cookies on your terminal device, unless you have prohibited the use of cookies in your browser, or read cookies. Location data may also be collected if you allow this in your browser. Activating the plug-in constitutes consent within the meaning of Art. 6 (1) S. 1 (a) GDPR. You can withdraw this consent at any time with effect for the future.
